

AP Literature
2008-2009
Mrs. Oles

Summer reading

Read the following books over the summer and make sure to review them before school starts because you will have objective tests on them the first week of school. If you fail to pass the tests you will be asked to move to a regular section as you are unlikely to keep up with the reading the rest of the year. Make sure you bring these to class the first two weeks.

- Grapes of Wrath-John Steinbeck
- Invisible Man-Ralph Ellison
- Heart of Darkness-Norton Critical Edition

Books for next year

The following is a list of the books we will be using for class next year, in the order we read them. You do not have to have these additions but the page numbers may not be the same in other copies. The vocabulary book will be available in the bookstore but you may get the other copies through friends( many are the same as this year) or through local bookstores, libraries or on-line.

- Writing with Syle-Joseph Trimble
- Moby Dick-Herman Melville(Penguin Classics)
- Turn of the Screw-Henry James(Norton Critical Edition)
- Winesburg, Ohio-Sherwood Anderson(Penguin Classics)
- Ethan Frome-Edith Wharton(Oxford World's Classics)
- Western Wind: an Introduction to Poetry-David Mason/Nims(McGraw-Hill)
- Oedipus(class copy)
- Death of a Salesman-Arthur Miller
- True West(class copy)
- King Lear-Shakespeare(New Folger Library)
- Wise Blood-Flannery O'Connor(Farrar, Straus and Giroux)
- The Sound and the Fury-William Faulkner(Vintage)
- Reservation Blues-Sherman Alexie(Warner Books)
- Song of Solomon-Toni Morrison(Vintage)

